

Superintendent's Highlight of the Week: April 25

POB's Anything Goes Stuns Audiences

So you think Broadway has talent? Well so does POB ...in abundance. We always look forward with intense anticipation to opening day for the high school musical and for good reason. Last night the cast of Anything Goes was beyond astounding. Our students are so talented that the director, Rich Olivari, had a very difficult time casting the leads. He elicited the input of the students on whether he should have a double cast and wouldn't you know it? The students went with having double leads; each one of equal talent.

From the sets to the costumes to the singing and dancing, this one is a must see. Be sure to look for an older than average cast member who doubles as the principal during the day. You will be sorry if you miss this production.

It's delightful, it's de..lovely, it's de..mazing.
