

ParentSquare Quick Reference Guide | Posts Parent & Guardian Access

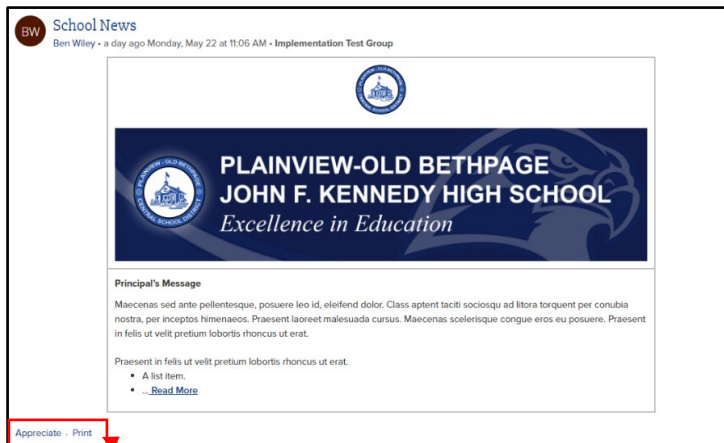

Posting

There are multiple ways to receive communication from the district, teachers, and staff. Using the Post method is just one way, and the most common and best method, of communicating with you. It is best used for groups of people and not for communicating with an individual person. Posts may allow recipients to comment on them or allow users to appreciate (heart) them. Those users/recipients who are members of the group can see posts for that group.

Post are the most often used method of communication within ParentSquare. It allows notifications to be created and sent for the whole school, an entire grade, or to an individual group or class, or any combination.

How to View a Post

1. Choose your child(s) building if not already selected.
2. Select Posts from the left navigation bar. You may have noticed that previous post are displayed on the screen once you logged into ParentSquare. All newer posts will be located at the top most level of the post stream window.

For Example: This sample post was sent to a specific group I was a member of from a District Admin person. If you were part of this group, you would be able to view it, print it, or appreciate it.

3. You can Appreciate (Heart) or Print the post.

Help is always available by either contacting the Technology Office at 516.434.3090 or by opening a help desk ticket at <http://tickets.pobschools.org/>. Additionally, within ParentSquare, click the “?” question mark, located upper right to obtain additional training information from the vendor.
