

For High School Senior Parents | FSA ID Creation

Students and contributors (parents or spouses) are required to have an FSA ID to complete and sign the FAFSA online. FSA IDs should be created in advance so accounts exist prior to completing the FAFSA. Join us for a step-by-step guide. Parents can register here: Walk Through FSA ID for Parents

For EOP Applicants Only | EOP Completion Workshops

EOP Form Completion events are designed for EOP applicants who have already submitted an application to a SUNY school via applySUNY or the Common Application and are seeking assistance with the completion of their required EOP Financial Information Form. Applicants can register here: EOP Form Completion

For High School Seniors | Application Workshops

For those seniors who have yet to submit their SUNY applications, help is available. These workshops provide an overview of the application process, as well as step-by-step information on completing the SUNY Application. Registration is available here: How to Apply.

For High School Juniors | SUNY Overview

Introduce the Class of 2025 to SUNY! We offer "Which SUNY Are You?" sessions throughout the spring, as well as EOP Information and Financial Aid sessions. Students can register for all workshops here: suny.edu/studentevents.

More Good News From SUNY

University at Buffalo computer science student, Holliday Sims, was recognized by Governor Hochul during the State of the State address for her research utilizing AI to foster positive societal change. Read more

Nassau Community College alumni Billy Crystal and SUNY Potsdam alumni Renee Fleming are honored by the John F Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts for lifetime artistic achievements. Read more

Jamestown Community College, along with 14 other SUNY campuses, was recognized as one of AmeriCorps' Schools of National Service. Read more

Alfred State has earned a U.S. Department of Education grant for more than $2 million for its Degrees That Work project. Read more

Thank you for your support of The State University of New York.