SAT and/or ACT.... True or False

- Each additional question answered correctly on the SAT improves your score by 10 points.
- An incorrect answer on the SAT and/or ACT will deduct points from your overall score.
- If I pay an extra fee when registering for the SAT and/or ACT, I can receive the test and answers back.
- Is a 1060 a good score on the SAT? How about a 21 on ACT?
- I need to be a science wiz to take the ACT.
- My friend told me that colleges do not accept ACT, they only want to see SAT's.

Resume

How Do You Get Started Writing a Resume/Activity Sheet?

- Naviance is a Useful Tracking Tool for All Extracurricular Activities
- Additional Resume Template

What Do You Include In a Resume?

- Clubs, Athletics, Employment, Volunteer/Community Service, Activities, Hobbies

Why Is Having a Resume Important?

College Decision Deadlines

Early Action:

Apply early (typically 11/1 or 11/15) and you are notified early (typically by the end of December)

You can apply to many schools EA and make your decision by May 1st

Early Decision:

Binding agreement - you can only apply to 1 school ED

If you get accepted to your ED school you must go

Similar timeline as Early Action

College Decision Deadlines Continued

Regular Decision:

Later application deadline typically January or February

Notified of decision typically March and April

Rolling Admissions:

No actual deadline - continuously reviewing applications as they come in

Earlier is better - school will accept applications until they fill up

Who is Responsible for What?

Student	School Counselor	Teacher
Submit College Application	Submit Student Transcript	Submit Teacher Recommendation Letter
Submit official SAT/ACT scores to college	Submit School Profile and other supporting documents
