

Superintendent's Highlight of the Week February 11, 2017

The theatres of Broadway have a lot to look forward to if the cast of the POBMS performance of Annie Warbucks is any indication of its future. Recently, the POBMS Drama Cadets dazzled the school community with another spectacular performance. After months of hard work, dedication, perseverance, practice, line memorization, improvisation, singing & dancing, and stage crew design, the students let their talents shine on stage. The lines were perfectly delivered with wit and confidence. The songs were beautifully sung with amazing dance accompaniment, and the set design and costumes were of professional caliber. The performance of Annie Warbucks was truly a masterpiece and demonstrated the talents of our school community. A special thank-you is due to all of the students, staff, parents and families for their hard work and for their continued support. We can't wait for next year's show.
