Social/Emotional Learning:

- Music supports Empathy: Research suggests that singing together promotes empathy towards one another (Guilmartin, 2015).
- Different musical activities promote impulse control (Guilmartin, 2015).
- Guiding students towards behavior that is gracious and humble (Higdon, 2017).
- Effective communication skills, cooperative participation in group activities, and resolution of interpersonal conflicts and disagreements (Kupana, 2015).
- Music links children to their cultural heritage (Belapurkar, 2017).
- Social-Emotional Music Education supports anti-bullying, problem-solving, and other daily challenges (Edgar, 2017).
