

SOARING TO NEW HEIGHTS

*2022-2023 Budget Presentation
Music and Performing Arts*

April 6, 2022

Music and Performing Arts Department Philosophy

- ✓ All students, at any time, can begin studying music
- ✓ Music is for all students, not just students enrolled in ensembles

Responsive Teaching and Learning

- Creative and expressive programs for all students K-12
- Integrated and annually refreshed music technology subscriptions to support music literacy, fluency, composition and understanding
- Performance-based classes and opportunities
- Enriching performing arts experiences:
  - ✓ Partnerships with local colleges and universities
  - ✓ NYSSMA All-State, All-Eastern, All-National, NYSSMA Majors, LISFA, NYSBDA, NYSTEAs student representation and participation
  - ✓ "Electrify your Symphony" concert with Mark Wood of the Trans-Siberian Orchestra
  - ✓ JFKHS Choir premiering of choral works from nationally known composers
- Increased enrollment and participation in ensembles
- Focus on creating and nurturing chamber music recitals and performances
- New HS music course: "Modern Music: A Survey of American Music"

Citizenship and Safe Learning Environment

- Community-based performances at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library, Chamber of Commerce, Senior Citizens Club of POB and parades
- Performances for special events in the District and community
- Musical experiences and instruction for ABA classes
- Student-centered and creative projects for expression and growth
- Environments that promote music as primary focus for students or a supportive experience for neurological development
- Welcoming, non-judgmental and patient atmosphere
- Quality instrument and musical supply inventory provided to students
- Ability for creative and expressive projects through our music technology subscriptions
- Social-emotional learning integrated within the "musical approach" for students, with connections to their instructors, each other, and using the concept of responding to works of different types to understand and comprehend emotions and feelings experienced

The Proposed Budget Supports

- Equity, inclusion, and diversity in repertoire and concert programming
- Introducing students to pathways for careers in music outside traditional professions of education and performance such as luthiers, innovative designing for instruments, music business ownership and recording engineering
- Support for new music curriculum – “Modern Music: A Survey of American Music”
- Professional development with highly qualified professionals for music and performing arts staff
- Continuing growth of ensembles with level appropriate music, challenging and stretched for growth
- Co-curricular music and performing arts activities such as marching band, a cappella, musicals, drama and talent show
- Guitar Building and Effect Pedal Building within Guitar III and Guitar IV at the high school
- Launch of Electric String Quartet
- Interactive field trips for musical experiences
