

Mattlin Middle School Teacher Honored for Senior Volunteer Work Fifth Grade Teacher Cori Cohen Recognized for Efforts in “Grandpals Club”

PLAINVIEW, NEW YORK (October, 2024)—Mattlin Middle School 5th grade teacher Cori Cohen was honored by Atria Senior Living’s Adopt a Teacher program. The recognition honors her work with the volunteer Grandpals Club.

Grandpals is a school club that involves students visiting the neighboring Atria Senior Center every Friday to connect with resident seniors through crafts, games, and meaningful conversations. Both Cohen and her students dedicate their Friday afternoons to provide this valuable service. Atria’s Adopt a Teacher program recognizes local teachers who have made a lasting impact and go above and beyond to support seniors.
