

POB Challenger League Hosts Basketball Final

Games Offer Inclusive, Fun Experiences for All Students

PLAINVIEW, NEW YORK (April, 2025)—The Plainview-Old Bethpage Central School District's Challenger Basketball League recently ended its season on a high note, as the Plainview Challenger Hawks secured a 70-67 home-game victory over the Plainview-Old Bethpage John F. Kennedy High School boys varsity basketball team in a spirited matchup on March 25th.

The District's Challenger Basketball League provides a basketball experience for middle and high school students, emphasizing skill development, teamwork, and fun. Under the guidance of dedicated coaches, athletes focus on active participation and physical activity while enjoying the camaraderie of competitive play against neighboring districts. The final game—a highlight of the season—showcased the league's impact both on and off the court.
