

Plainview-Old Bethpage JFK High School Student Receives National Community Service Award

Plainview-Old Bethpage JFK High School is proud to announce that Lauren Muscolino, a junior, has been honored with a National Community Service Award from the United Nations Association of the United States of America. This prestigious award recognizes Lauren's outstanding commitment to community service and her efforts in supporting the United Nations Global Goals.

Lauren has dedicated numerous hours to various community service activities, demonstrating a strong commitment to making a positive impact. Her work aligns with the core values of the United Nations, particularly connecting personal service with progress towards Global Goals.

“Lauren's dedication to service is exemplary,” said Joseph Izzo, her school counselor. “She is a student who truly understands the importance of giving back to the community and making a difference. Her recognition by the UNA-USA is well-deserved and highlights her as a role model for her peers.”

Lauren's recognition underscores the importance of fostering a sense of service and global citizenship among students. The Plainview-Old Bethpage Central School District commends Lauren for her remarkable achievements and contributions.

Photo caption: From left, school counselor Joseph Izzo, K-12 Director of Guidance Laurie Lynn, National Community Service Award recipient Lauren Muscolino and Principal Dr. Heather Dvorak celebrated Lauren's achievement.