

Plainview-Old Bethpage JFK High School celebrates Night of Honors

On May 2nd, Plainview-Old Bethpage JFK High School hosted a Night of Honors, recognizing students for their academic and community service achievements. The event celebrated their induction into various prestigious honor societies, highlighting their dedication and hard work. Amongst family and faculty, these scholars were applauded for their outstanding achievements, symbolizing the District's commitment to academic excellence.

It was a night of inspiration, marking a milestone in their educational journey and setting a high standard for future generations. Students were inducted into the following honor societies:

- American Sign Language Honor Society
- Art Honor Society
- Business Honor Society
- Chinese Honor Society
- English Honor Society
- French Honor Society
- Italian Honor Society
- Math Honor Society
- Science Honor Society
- Spanish Honor Society
- Tri-M Honor Society

Principal of Plainview-Old Bethpage JFK High School, Dr. Heather Dvorak, expressed her pride and congratulations, saying, "We are extremely proud of our students' accomplishments and the dedication they have shown to achieving high academic standards. Congratulations to all the inductees!"

A special thank you goes out to our custodial and secretarial staff, parents/guardians of the inductees, and our dedicated teachers whose daily commitment to their students made this night possible!
